

Advanced Academics

Fall Symposium

August 26, 2019

5:30-7:30 pm

MISD Center for Performing Arts

5:30-6:00	6:05-6:35	6:40-7:25
Breakout Sessions (Please select one session)	K-8 Booths Lobby Area	K-8 Identification and Services Presentation Performance Hall

Start the evening with a topic of your choice, and then come learn what each campus has to offer to support your advanced learner. End your evening with an overview of the MISD GT identification and services processes.

Break Out Session

Descriptions

Session Title	Description	Presenters	Location
Parenting Gifted Children: Dealing with Anxiety and Perfectionism	Understand the relationship between anxiety and perfectionism and gain parents tools to help your child overcome these issues.	Dan Hippman and Christine McGraw	Training Room 1
High Interest Books for Advanced Readers	Learn about high interest book choices for middle and young adult advanced readers.	Amy Toombs and Kim Williams Shyrlene Shelton	Training Room 2
Problem-Solving for Gifted Learners (All)	Come learn ways to encourage and develop problem-solving skills in your advanced student.	Kristi Robertson and Heather Carson	Training Room 3
Math Pentathlon Games (K-6)	Learn about the benefits of being a part of an interactive problem-solving club. The presenters are experienced program users and utilized this curriculum in the classroom and competition.	Janekka Colbert and Bonnie Fallis	Training Room 4
Texas PSP (All)	Find out about independent learning experiences and research projects that teachers adapt and use with their G/T students.	Amber Turner and Natalie Toomey	Training Room 5
6 Types of Gifted Learners	Find out which of the 6 different types of gifted learners matches your child. Discover the learning characteristics associated with each of them.	Ashley Kettler	Training Room 6